

Dr. Saqib is a qualified Orthopedic, Trauma, and Pediatric Orthopedic Surgeon currently serving in the Health Department of Sindh, Pakistan, and also working as a Consultant at the Red Crescent Hospital, Sukkur. He graduated in 2008 from Dow Medical College and later obtained his FCPS in Orthopedic Surgery in 2017 from the College of Physicians and Surgeons Pakistan. Following his specialization, he worked as a Registrar at Chandka Medical College Hospital, where he gained extensive experience in trauma care and orthopedic surgery.

He further enhanced his expertise through specialized training, including a four-month fellowship in Pediatric Orthopedic Surgery at Khyber Teaching Hospital under the supervision of Dr. Sikander Hayat, as well as a two-week arthroplasty fellowship at Yeni Klinika Hospital. His clinical interests include trauma management, pediatric orthopedics, deformity correction, and joint replacement, and he remains committed to delivering quality patient care and continuous professional development.

He started his sports and arthroscopic career working under the supervision of Prof Wong Tak Man at the Department of Orthopaedics & Traumatology, The University of Hong Kong (Queen Mary Hospital) from 14 Jan 2026 to 30 April 2026.